AXMINSTER Town began life under new manager Paul Ashford with a 0-0 draw against Exmouth Town. Ashford's assistant James Bennett was impressed with the point. He said: "Exmouth are rumoured to be one of the title favourites this campaign and brought an experience side. Clash over water leak in cemetery

A ROW broke out when Axminster Town Council discussed emergency works to locate and isolate a leaking water main at the town's cemetery.

The bill came to £2,637 plus VAT and councillor Paul Hayward drew first blood by berating the fact that three quotations had not been sought from contractors.

He said: "It is absolutely unbelievable for the town council to spend this amount of money to not even repair it.

But the decision was defended by a number of councillors, including Sue Spiller, who chairs the cemetery committee.

She explained, in no uncertain terms, that it was an emergency which needed action straight away, adding: "We could have had the situation that water was fountaining out of somebody's grave."

Councillor Spiller asked Councillor Hayward what he would have done in the same situation.

He replied that he would have capped off all the water supply until an assessment had been made and quotes received.

Mayor Andrew Moulding shot the argument down, saying: "Presumably the supply had to be maintained for sanitation."

COLYTON/SEATON

Oil spill dangers

A WOMAN has urged drivers to immediately report oil spills on the road after she watched a young motorcyclist have a lucky escape near Colyton.

Fiona Little, who lives off Harepath Road, Seaton, was driving her car on the outskirts of Colyton when a motorcyclist was caught out by an oil spill and was sent flying.

The accident happened at about 8.20pm on Wednesday, July 25th on a small road between a farm and The Bys.

The motorcyclist didn't suffer serious injuries but Fiona is not happy.

She said: "He could have been badly injured, he could have been under my car.

"I want to draw people's attention. If you spill oil, report it straight away."

The motorcyclist was taken to hospital by friends with cuts and bruises and also suffered financially through lost income from work and insurance excess.

From the editor's chair Stepping back to 1965

TIME to move on from the rosy glow left by the Olympics and get back to life as we know it. For rural newspapers such as Pulman's View, that means it's the flower show season.

To be honest, my young reporters are not overly enthusiastic about spending Saturday afternoons in stuffy village halls chronicling who has exhibited the longest runner bean or the tastiest Victoria sponge.

But me, being the dinosaur that I have inevitably become after spending so many years on this reporting patch, I love them.

They are a microcosm of a gentle, less frenetic age. A time without iPhones, iPads and will-i-am (for those of you not down with the kids, that's the name of a popular rapper - I think!).

Stepping into The Manor Room in Uptontery on Saturday for their 50th anniversary flower and vegetable show was like stepping back to 1965.

That was the first year I covered Uptontery Flower Show, two years after the archetypal village event was first held on August 24th 1963 when their were 52 classes and the prize-money was paid in shillings and old pence.

To be truthful, the Manor Rooms at Uptontery (effectively the village hall) has changed little from those days but the smells were the same, that glorious aroma of freshly cut blooms.

Having called into the Manor Rooms earlier in the afternoon for a quick chat with secretary Richard Weaver, I returned just after 4.30pm for the presentation of prize-money and trophies. The hall was packed with expectant green-fingered Uptonterians (new word?), anxious to see whether their name would appear on one of the trophies.

Very often at village flower shows there's one name that dominates the prize-list. On this occasion it was Daniel Leighton, trained at Kew Gardens and looking after the gardens at the Old Vicarage. He went home with four trophies to his name.

But it was pleasing to see a few old Uptontery family names (Drew and Bright among them) on the prize-list with the village children featuring prominently ensuring, I hope, that this most English of events will still be around in another 50 years.

Congratulations to Uptontery Flower and Vegetable Show for staying the course - with a special mention going to Richard Weaver and Ruby Cooke for serving on the organising committee for the whole of the 50 years.

♦ WHAT a privilege it was to be in Sidmouth on Friday evening to witness the homecoming of Olympian Mary King. Thousands turned out for the occasion and it was one of the most enjoyable events I have covered for some time. See my Editor at Large column on page 22.

SIDMOUTH Freedom of town for Olympic hero

THOUSANDS of people lined the streets of Sidmouth on Friday evening to welcome home Olympian silver medallist Mary King.

Mary, a member of the successful GB eventing team in the London 2012 who lives at Salcombe Regis, rode her horse, Imperial Cavalier, through the town centre as a thank you for all the support she had received.

Mary, at 51 the oldest member of the GB team, rode Imperial Cavalier down the High Street, into Fore Street onto the Esplanade and up Station Road to the Three Cornered Plot and into Kennaway House where town council members and officials and other dignitaries were waiting to greet her.

She was cheered all the way to Kennaway House with fans shouting "well done Mary".

Councillor Hughes then sprung a surprise on Mary when presented her with a citation conferring the Freedom of the Town on her.

Feniton resident urges others to take a stand against fly 'invasion'

A RESIDENT from Feniton, near Honiton, is urging others to make a stand against a fly 'invasion'.

The resident said that the fly problem is something that the village battles with every year.

She said: "It is time to take a stand. I've called East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Environmental Health Office and it is aware of the situation.

"However, the person I spoke to mentioned that they cannot take action as there is not a sufficient number of complaints from residents.

"I know from talking to neighbours and friends that there is a widespread problem in the village, so now I'm asking that people contact EDDC to lodge their complaint."

An EDDC spokesperson told Pulman's View: "There has been fly nuisance problems in the past which have been connected with Long Park Farm in Feniton, and also associated with the spreading of biosolids.

"A few years ago these problems were quite severe and tended to continue for many weeks throughout the summer.

"Since that time the situation has significantly improved as a result of improved management, the farmer working closely with our environmental health team.

"There had been no reports of a fly nuisance in Feniton this year until the weekend of August 10th. "The farmer has confirmed that the chicken sheds were empty for the early part of the summer, but that there has been a sudden emergence of flies.

"The farmer regularly monitors for flies but they can be difficult to find in the manure, often emerging in significant numbers on one day.

"As soon as he became aware he has treated with larvicides and insecticides and this will continue until the problem has been resolved.

"A number of residents have contacted us and are helping us determine the level of infestation.

"We will continue to liaise with the farmer until the situation is resolved but we have told residents that it is not possible for the farm or the Council to guarantee that these situations will not recur."

■ TROPHY WINNERS: Musbury Village Show winners show off their silverware

High standards despite the rain at Musbury Village Show

OVER 250 people visited the recent Musbury Village Show to view exhibits and applaud the winning entries.

Organisers of the event, held in Musbury Village Hall, were thrilled with the overall response and agreed that participation in the event was beyond all expectations.

The quality of entries in the garden produce category were of a particularly high standard despite the poor growing season. The home produce section was also well supported, with cakes, jams and preserves and pastries on show.

Other categories included flower arranging, crafts and photography, plus children's sections.

Winners were as follows:

5-7 year olds - Chester Smith; 8-11 year olds - Xavier King; 12-16 year olds - Leila English; Overall Children's Shield - Chester Smith.

Flower Cup - Mr D.F. Pomeroy; Flower Arrangement Cup - Elizabeth Taylor.

Vegetable Cup - David Antell; Onion Cup - Dick Gore; Fun Vegetable - John Warren.

Home Produce - Jane Kessler; Photography - Leila English; Craft - Katarina Sobek; Newcomer Cup - Karen J. Nicholson; Vegetable Plot Cup - Dick Gore; Small Garden - Brenda Parkman; Large Garden - Rob and Lynn Clark

THE residents of Upottery were in celebratory mood on Saturday when the Playings Fields staged the 50th anniversary flower and vegetable show in the Manor Room.

The first show was held on August 24th 1963 when there were 52 classes.

That number has grown to around the 100 mark and the shows remains as popular as ever.

Long serving secretary Richard Weaver reported a total of 380 entries, down on recent years due to the poor growing season, but the standard in all classes remained high.

The show committee on which Mr Weaver and Ruby Cooke have served for the whole of the 50 years, introduced an art section three of four years ago and is now an important part of the event, attracting more entries every year.

There was also excellent support in the children's classes.

The show turned out to be a personal triumph for Daniel Leighton, a gardener trained at Kew Gardens and who now looks after the gardens at the Old Vicarage in Upottery.

He has been a regular exhibitor since moving to the village and went home with five trophies for the most points in the flower section, the most outstanding flower arrangement, most points in the vegetable section, best vase of flowers and the people's choice cup.

It was also a successful afternoon for Karen Hembrow who won a couple of trophies including the cup for the most points in the show.

Other principal trophy winners were: Pat Jarvis, Penelope Moore, Linda Palmer, Daisy Drew, Sam Bright, Millie Drew, Shirley Spiller, Rosemary Arscott and Bryony Marshalsay.

Show chairman Jim Thomas crowned a glorious afternoon by presenting gifts to Mr Weaver and Mrs Cooke for their 50 years on the committee.

Awards for lollipop people

LOLLIPOP men and women with almost 400 years of combined service have been officially decorated by Devon County Council (DCC).

Formally known as school crossing patrols, 34 lollipop people received long service awards at a recent ceremony.

The Sapphire Award is for a minimum of 30 years, Platinum (25), Diamond (20), Gold (15), Silver (10) and Bronze (5).

There is also a Retirement Award for those leaving the service.

Among those to receive awards were: Shirley Wiblin (Honiton Primary School / Littleton Primary School - Diamond and Retirement); Leonie Burt (Ottery St Mary Primary School - Bronze) and Brian Craig (Seaton Primary School - Silver).

The presentations were made at The Coaver Club, County Hall, by DCC chairman Jerry Brook.

DCC cabinet member for highways and transportation, councillor Stuart Hughes, said: "These men and women play a really important role in our communities and have helped thousands of children across the roads over the years."

"I want to send them my thanks and appreciation for all their hard work and to encourage anyone thinking about becoming a patroller to get in touch with us."

"All the equipment and training is provided and the work can be both rewarding and enjoyable."

Group produces 'stag do' guide

HONITON and District Round Table has produced a stag do guide to help men with their best man duties.

Branch member Stephen Saunders said: "Understandably, the pressure of organising such an important event can cause a degree of apprehension so to help deliver a stag do that lives up to expectations, we have released our very own comprehensive guide."

"We've been overwhelmed with stag do stories and advice from our members and the general public, and we'd like to thank them for helping us to create the guide."

"With the summer 'stag do' season in full swing, we're still keen to hear your stories."

The guide contains a definitive list of dos and don'ts, ranging from good common sense tips like places to go, to the more obscure but important hints, such as how to keep the event secret for as long as possible.

Honiton and District Round Table asked people to submit examples of good and bad practice, tips and incriminating footage all contributing to one epic final result.

The guide can be viewed at www.roundtable.co.uk/bestman-guide.

■ INTERIOR DESIGNER: TV presenter Naomi Cleaver will hold a one-day interior design course at Combe House

Interior design course at hotel

TV presenter, writer and interior designer, Naomi Cleaver, will return to Honiton, to deliver her final interior design course for 2012.

The course, titled The Real Trade Secrets of Designing Your Perfect Home covers every aspect of the interior design process - from how to develop your own individual ideas to dealing with building regulations.

"Designing your home can feel like an overwhelming challenge," says Naomi Cleaver, "especially when there are so many choices and decisions to make and when every decision costs money."

"Living in a home that expresses our creativity, and that of our household, has immense benefits to our sense of well-being and I will show students how you can create a home that is individual without making expensive mistakes."

New to the course will be a mini-masterclass on creating the perfect kitchen living space delivered by course sponsors, Sapphire Living.

Courses begin with morning coffee and homemade biscuits followed by a buffet lunch and ending with a classic Devon cream tea.

The one-day course is priced at £175 to include a copy of Naomi's book The Joy of Home. For more information, visit www.naomicleaver.com.

Regatta sets scene for 100th birthday

BEEER Regatta, one of East Devon's most enjoyable summer attractions, set the scene for their 100th anniversary in 2013 with a week of events that drew large crowds to the area's most picturesque village.

The weather was not quite so co-operative as it could have been, but when has a few drops of rain and blustery conditions stopped the villagers of Beer and their holiday guests enjoying themselves?

■ REGATTA stalwarts Pat Newton and Jenny Clinch raise the flag at the opening ceremony watch by chairman Kate Boalch

By Philip Evans
philip@pemedial.co.uk

Regatta committee chairman Kate Boalch referred to the great community spirit in Beer and what a fantastic achievement it was for such a small village to put on so many events - more than 20 - every year.

Miss Boalch also referred to next year's 100th anniversary, promising a "very special" week.

The 2012 programme started on Saturday of last week with an hectic day of events which included a treasure hunt, coffee morning, angling competition, sea shanties from the Guys No Dolls, a fish barbecue and a dance in the Mariners Hall featuring the popular Ajo Big Band.

Sunday's activities switched to Beer Albion Football Club for an afternoon of fun for all the family, featuring "Robbie's Races" for the kids and "Gareth's Grown Up Games" for the adults, attracting a crowd of more than 800 people.

Other activities at the football club included a number of stalls, arts and crafts, kite flying, face painting and circus skills.

Popular talk

Other events leading up to the main Regatta Day on Thursday included rowing races, a mackerel fishing competition, a sausage sizzle, junior disco, darts competition, skittles competition, bingo and a spoofing competition.

One particularly popular event was the annual regatta talk, this time given by Sally Dodge on her travels in South America. Children's entertainment with magician George also proved to be popular.

Regatta Day started with the official opening, the honour this year falling to two Regatta stalwarts, Pat Newton and Jenny Clinch, who have been involved with the organisation for many years and recalled the old Regatta days.

They singled the start of Regatta Day by unfurling the Union Jack and were presented with bouquets by Miss Boalch.

The day's activities got off to a start with the children's scavenger hunt, organised by Jayne Aplin and Jane Boulton.

Unfortunately, one of the main attractions of the day, the sailing races for cruisers, Beer Luggers and working boats, had to be cancelled because of the choppy seas. But the seas were not too rough for the decorated raft race, which this year was able to go ahead with insurance cover after several years being confirmed to a best decorated competition on the beach, but which never stopped the intrepid raft builders taking part in an unofficial launch.

The raft race as always attracted a huge crowd on the beach with entries ranging from a London bus to Noah's

■ OUT IN FRONT: Keen competition in one of the boys' races at the Sunday Fun Day at Beer Football Club

Ark. Regatta Day concluded with the children's fancy dress competition, organised by Anita White, and a spectacular fireworks display in the evening, sponsored by Woozies Deli.

The week concluded with the children's pebble painting competition in Charlie's Yard, with proceeds going to Beer Primary School, and an al fresco disco at the Dolphin Hotel car park on Friday, with the annual dingy Regatta being hosted by Beer Sailing Club on Saturday, followed by the prize-giving and barbecue at the clubhouse early evening.

■ REGULARS: Laurence Hitchcock, Jim Bolton, Keith Broom and Chris Littlewood usually sail over to Beer Regatta from Lyme Regis but the seas with too choppy this year and they travelled by bus

■ HOT DOGS: Members and supporters of the 1st Beer Scouts ran a popular barbecue on Monday and Wednesday evenings

■ SWEET TREATS: Children from Beer Rainbows at their coffee morning in the Mariners Hall. The group are looking for new children aged 5-7 and adult leaders (phone Tracey Hansford for details - 01297 21012 or 0778338697)

Collapsed road awaiting further structural tests

THE collapsed Old Beer Road in Seaton is awaiting further structural tests to determine its future.

Parts of the road collapsed after heavy rain and it has been closed since July 12th.

Structural engineers and geotechnical experts have been at the scene, but a Devon County Council spokesperson said that there had been no update since and more tests are scheduled.

In Devon as a whole, the clean-up and repair bill from the flooding in early July is expected to exceed £5 million, which is why DCC has asked for government funding. Councillor Stuart Hughes, DCC Cabinet member for Highways and Transportation, has written to the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, Eric Pickles, calling for emergency help that extends beyond the Bellwin Scheme, which only covers clean up and temporary repairs costs.

Councillor Hughes

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

said: "Devon has endured a number of serious weather events this summer, which has not only led to a series of clean up operations but also considerable damage being caused to our highway network.

"The council is applying for help through the Bellwin Scheme, which helps with temporary repairs and clean up costs in excess of £1.7 million, but it takes no account of permanent repair costs.

"We're working hard to try to restore our highway network, however if support isn't forthcoming from central government it will put significant pressure on the county's budgets.

"We have 8,000 miles of roads in Devon to maintain, and the network has again suffered at the hands of the weather.

"There should be similar emergency funding to the Winter Damage Grant where we received £12.9 million over two years in 2010 and 2011 after repeated severe winters.

This proved extremely valuable, helping us to target the worst affected areas, and enabling us to have a major impact on our local roads."

Swimmer returns to beach unaided

A SWIMMER returned to Seaton beach unaided after rescuers had been called out just after 6pm on Wednesday, August 15th.

A coastguard spokesperson said: "Portland Coastguard tasked Beer Coastguard Rescue Team, Sidmouth

Inshore Lifeboat, and coastguard helicopter Rescue 106 to the seafront at Seaton after a 999 call reporting a swimmer being swept out to sea.

"The person made shore safely whilst units were being tasked."

Choir supports two good causes

FOLLOWING a successful evening of singing and musical entertainment at The Gateway in Seaton Town Hall, Axe Valley Choir presented two worthy causes with donations from the show.

Cheques were donated by the choir to Macmillan Cancer Support and to Seaton's Voice in support of the valuable ongoing work they do.

Pleased to hand over the cheques was musical director of the Axe Valley Choir, Edward Jacobs, who said that the choir really enjoyed the evening and that it was fantastic that they can support two very worthy organisations that do so much for the community.

On receiving the cheque, Trisha Heard, who attended on behalf of Macmillan Cancer Support, said: "Everyone is touched by cancer at some point in their lives and donations like this mean that Macmillan can keep nurses at the front line of palliative care giving the best support they can to patients and families."

Elga Mackie of Seaton's Voice added: "It is great to receive this donation for the hall as the expenditure is very high with community buildings such as this. Thank you very much."

■ CELEBRATING 100 YEARS: Ellen Richardson (sitting centre) was joined by a huge number of close friends and family when she celebrated her 100th birthday

Hardwork and a sense of humour the secret to Ellen's 100 years

FRIENDS and family gathered at The Manor House in Seaton for a day of celebrations when resident Ellen Richardson turned 100 years old.

Born in London, Ellen was one of 12 siblings and this showed when a huge number of family members and close friends gathered to celebrate her centennial year last week.

Celebrating her birthday with a special toast and birthday cake, Ellen reflected on her many years alongside great nieces and nephews, her daughter and many other relatives who travelled from as far as the Isle of Wight and Lancashire for her special day.

She also received a call from one of her three remaining younger sisters, all of whom still live on the Isle of Wight.

Ellen says one of the many highlights of her life was running a guest house in Hastings where, alongside her husband Fred, she ran around throughout the day carrying suitcases up and down steep stairs, and attending to their guests, even at the age of 70.

After moving to Seaton in 1998 to be closer to her daughter, Lyn, Ellen also became a major player in Seaton's churches, particularly at the Baptist Church, and has always had a love for people and social events, making many friends over the years.

Known by staff at the Manor House as the one with a huge sense of humour, Ellen is a much-loved resident and is known for her smiles.

When asked what her secret was to reaching 100 she said: "Non stop hard work, a nap after lunch and a good sense of humour."

Seaton Carnival Week

Friday 24th August - 1st September

There's been a murder at Seaton Town Hall, 7.30pm on Thursday August 30th, can you solve the mystery? Seaton Drama Group has a great night out planned with a quiz.

Do you need a great night out? Then come along to the Seaton Carnival Variety Night on Friday August 31st at the Town Hall from 6.30pm. Seaton's 2012 illuminated carnival procession will take place on Saturday September 1st, and starts at 8pm on the Esplanade. Seaton Carnival is traditionally the first carnival in the East Devon circuit and attracts floats and entries from not only East Devon but also across Devon, Dorset and Somerset. Each year thousands of people come to see the event, which features bands, majorettes and lots of colourful floats.

Please Note the streets to be closed for procession night are: Fishermans Gap, Trevelyan Road, Beach Road, Riverside Way, Harbour Road, Underfleet, Fore Street, Marine Place and the Esplanade. Collectors are required for procession night and the collecting tins will be available from outside the Vault from 6.30pm. Seaton Carnival also has a Fun Dog Show on Saturday September 1st on the Esplanade at 10.30am.

Please buy a carnival programme from Seaton Town Hall and local shops to find out more information also for the colouring competition, I-spy competition, the NEW Photo Competition and the FREE £100 lucky prize draw sponsored by Seaton Fish Bar.

All of Seaton Carnival Committee hopes that the sun will be out and everyone enjoys all of the events and gives generously so the carnival gives generously to local charities. Last Year the carnival week and main procession raised £1,659.60. The main beneficiary for 2012 is the Seaton's First Response Unit. The Carnival week would not happen without the support of the traders/businesses advertising in the carnival programme and the public that help them every year raise money to give to local charities and have kept the carnival procession going for 47 years, so please give them a helping hand to help the carnival go on for another 47 years.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE Archbishop of Canterbury, who completes his time in this office later in the year, leads the week with a commendation of Marilyn Robinson's new book When I Was A Child I Read Books, with the view that this author's voice is one we must attend to urgently.

With a pause on television between the Olympics and Paralympics, many will have seen on BBC2 last week the first in a new series of home baking contests in The Great British Bake Off.

Contestants included Victoria Chester, former Lay Minister in the Colyton Mission Community, who for the past few years had been a Reader at St Andrew's Church Colyton. She was commended for her results, which included cakes and bread. The series continues tonight (Tuesday).

Gabby Douglas, the 16-year-old American gymnast who took gold in both individual and team categories at London 2012, is among the Olympians who have taken to the airwaves and social media sites to talk about their faith. She says: "I give all the glory to God. It's kind of a win-win situation. The glory goes up to him, and the blessings fall down on me."

Changes regarding registration under chancel law for repair costs for certain church buildings ends next year.

Where the legal process is not complete individuals will be liable for certain church repair costs. Some churches welcome the news!

Members of Colyton Mission Community churches are off to Bath on Saturday, August 25th to support their choristers taking part in the RSCM course and the penultimate service in Bath Abbey.

Southleigh Church have a concert and tea in church on August 26th. The event begins at 2:30pm and is in aid of church repairs.

Buckerell Church have announced that the new date for their summer fete will be Saturday, September 8th.

MARTIN Poole, aka Chopsticks Martin, is a traditional traditional tattooist who has just moved to Seaton. He works in Axminster as a self-employed traditional tattooist (hand-poker) based at Chris's Tat Shack.

● WHAT are your impressions of Seaton so far?

I lived in Dorset for 16 years and I have known Seaton for a long time as a visitor. It strikes me as England's New Zealand because it is pleasantly out of time, chilled, relaxing and undemanding.

● YOU work in Axminster, why did you decide to set up in the town?

It is because I do what I do that I'm in Axminster, it was a commercial decision. I'm a hand-poker and there are only 25-30 of us in the country.

There are two ways to make money: one as a roving tattooist doing guest spots here, there and everywhere; the other is to find a base to provide enough work in somebody else's shop.

It is easier said than done as not all tattooists are very helpful. But Chris [Williams] wants me in his shop because I expand the range of services he can offer.

● WHAT is hand-poked tattooing?

It is the name given to tattoos done just by hand, i.e. no machine, no electric. It is what we did in centuries past and it never quite went away.

I've always been a bit nutty about doing things in a more traditional way. I looked after old buildings, I played golf with wooden-shafted clubs, and now I tattoo like our ancestors did.

● YOU worked in local government for almost 30 years. Tell us a little about that, and why you changed career?

Suited and booted, my expertise was in historic buildings and area conservation - most recently in New Forest National Park. But I ran out of the door before I went mad.

The work was still of great interest but the ridiculous red tape was like nothing that had once attracted me into the career in 1979.

By the time I resigned my white collar manager's job, I had a face full of piercings and tattoos were leaking out into public wherever you looked.

● YOUR own promotional literature describes your appearance as possibly "alarming". Do you get stared at a lot and, if so, has it ever affected you?

I'm sure I do get stared at, but it never affects me. I have better things to do than catch people looking at me. In any case, many people say complimentary things.

● Has your appearance ever caused you a problem (like being refused entry somewhere, for example)?

No.

● Do you have any hobbies or play any sports?

I walk and still look at old places. I spend a lot of time standing and staring at old and beautiful places. I also used to be a half-decent golfer, but no more.

● Which is your favourite holiday destination, and why?

I've never been there, but Samoa. It is the only part of Polynesia to have retained its own tattooing tradition unbroken throughout modern times.

● What would you do/buy if you won an amount of money that would make you financially independent?

I would set up and manage a cool tattoo studio after my own image in this region. I could do my hand-poking and provide a nurturing environment for promising people.

Himalayan Balsam debate continues

MY RECENT notes on the spread of Himalayan Balsam, the invasive plant which is beginning to dominate patches of countryside, have elicited an email from a reader, Roy Briscoe, who lives in the valley of the Offwell Brook, to which he moved three years ago.

He owns four acres and discovered in the late summer of last year that one meadow leading down to the Brook was crammed with the weed. An attempt was made to cut it back but the task was such that, despite best efforts, some of the Balsam seeded.

This year he started cutting in May and has continued ever since. Now only a few plants have appeared and these have all been pulled up. The process will be repeated next year and, hopefully, unless there is a further invasion the Balsam will have been vanquished.

However, patches of Balsam keep appearing in all sorts of spots, demanding constant vigilance to remove and keep on top of this alien. Yes, the flowers are pretty, if a trifle garish, and yes they provide bees with sustenance for the winter, but it is still a plant which does not fit kindly into our green countryside.

There is little doubt that wildlife in a variety of forms, from insects to amphibians, birds and mammals, benefit enormously from gardens which offer some shelter and food.

Now Devon Wildlife Trust is inviting owners to turn their gardens into mini-wildlife havens by offering free advice via a new online blog. Written by Catherine Burgess who has created her own wildlife-friendly garden at Bovey Tracey, her first blog offers readers practical advice on how to plan and plant a small annual wildflower bed.

Devon Wildlife Trust's Steve Hussey added "We know wildlife gardening is something more and more people are turning to. Hedgehogs, bumblebees, frogs, butterflies, slow-worms, house sparrows and many other species are increasingly dependent on gardens as safe and secure places to live". The new blog is available via the Wildlife Gardening webpage at www.devonwildlifetrust.org/wildlife-gardening Escot Park, near Fenny Bridges, Ottery St Mary, is renowned for its wildlife friendly approach and here visitors can view red squirrels, wildboar and even beavers. It is also becoming renowned for its annual country fair, organised for the third year in succession by the Devon Wildfowling and Conservation Association.

Taking place on Sunday, September 2nd from 10am to 4pm, there will be a wide range of country activities, including gundog scurries, archery, air rifles and clay shooting. Visitors can also enjoy a range of stalls to include cider, stick makers, blacksmiths, wood carvers, clothing, thatching and, of course, wildfowling. There will also be terrier racing, fly-fishing, falconry and the Hawkridge Bird of Prey Centre.

This sort of occasion, which invariably involves immense effort and dedication on the part of the organisers and volunteers who make the show happen, provides a showcase for the rural and sporting activities which play a vital role in the life and management of the countryside. Entry, by the way, is free!

Brownsea Island nature reserve in Poole Harbour has been selected for a new guide to spectacular bird watching sites and can be found in the online guide 'Great places to see thousands of birds'.

Numbers of waders are already starting to build up on the lagoon at Brownsea and later in the year there will be in the region of 10,000 birds using this important site.

The island holds the record for the single largest avocet flock in the UK (1,331) and a wide range of waders, such as grey plover, curlew and spoonbills can be seen from the reserve's hides.

The online guide, published by The Wildlife Trusts, is free at wildlifetrusts.org/megaflocks. If you want more information about Brownsea Island call 01305 264620.

Mary's a credit to Sidmouth

YOU will find this hard to believe but I found myself running down Sidmouth High Street ahead of an Olympic horse on Friday evening!

Had there been a jump or two, I would probably have attempted to hurdle them.

It was the homecoming of Olympic silver medallist Mary King, who lives at Salcombe Regis, and I got a bit carried away with the fantastic welcome she received.

Thousands lined the streets as Mary and her magnificent horse, Imperial Cavalier, rode through the town to Kennaway House where the Freedom of the town was bestowed upon her.

The roads were lined by cheering supporters waving banners and shouting "well done Mary" and when she arrived a Kennaway House she was greeted by hundreds of wellwishers.

Through all this, her horse Imperial Cavalier hardly turned a hair despite a surge by all the wellwishers as he alighted from Mary's horse box in Temple Street.

And Mary was brilliant, especially with the children.

EDITOR AT LARGE

Philip Evans

As soon as she got out in Temple Street she brushed aside the pleas of the TV crews for an interview for their early evening news bulletins and went straight in among the crowd to show her much-prized silver medal to the kids.

She then brought Imperial Cavalier out of the horse box, mounted him and set off down the High Street, followed by an open top bus carrying family and friends.

It was at this point that I forgot I had just celebrated my 64th birthday and took off with the other photographers.

I managed to keep pace with the chap from the Midweek Herald for a while but by the time we got to Fore Street he was several lengths in front of me and I had to take a short cut to Kennaway House where it was at least 20 minutes before I could speak!

Well done to Sidmouth Town Council, and chairman Stuart Hughes in particular, for organising such a brilliant occasion.

Stuart's experience as a DJ clearly comes to the fore at such occasions and he was a picture of sartorial elegance in an electric blue suit and matching shirt.

He prompted a huge cheer from the crowd when he expressed the hope that Mary, at 51 the oldest GB competitor, would go on to compete in the 2016 games in Rio de Janeiro.

Mary, a credit to Sidmouth as well as to her sport, was clearly surprised and delighted to be given the Freedom of the town and made a charming thank you speech, recalling what a wonderful experience the Olympics Games had been for the competitors and how London 2012 had seemed to bring the whole country together.

Mary's success and her homecoming clearly brought Sidmouth together – and it was a privilege to have witnessed such an occasion.

CONGRATULATIONS to the hard-working committee who laid on another splendid Beer Regatta despite an indifferent week weather-wise.

It's one of my favourite events of the summer and I managed to get over to Beer twice on Regatta Day to cover some of the events.

Regatta chairman Kate Boalch had the right hump with the press in her opening speech, delivered in her usual confident style.

She didn't actually name any newspaper but expressed her disappointment that the press did not give the Regatta the coverage it deserved.

I hope Kate wasn't referring to Pulman's View. We published a two-page advertisement feature, at no cost to the Regatta committee, we sent a reporter to Beer six times last week and, as I point out above, I went over twice on Regatta Day.

In this week's Seaton and Beer edition we are carrying two pages of photos and will publish more next week.

Next year it will be the Regatta's 100th anniversary – and that's guaranteed to attract more press coverage than usual. We will definitely be there – as we are every year.

■ IN my page 3 From the Editor's Chair editorial over the last couple of weeks I have written about the feel-good factor created by the London Olympics and hopes that it would inspire young people to become more active and take up a sport.

I'm pleased to hear that down at Cloakham Lawns in Axminster, East Devon's premier sporting complex, they are thinking along the same lines.

Cloakham provides facilities for cricket, indoor bowls, outdoor bowls and football, as well as having a much-used floodlit multi-use games area, but chairman Peter Baalch tells me they would be more than interested in adding other sports to their itinerary.

If there is anyone in Pulman's View Country who is interested in starting a new sporting club or just looking for additional facilities they should contact Cloakham Lawns on 01297 34447.

At the moment, those who are seriously interested in athletics have to travel to Exeter. Wouldn't it be great if a new athletics club could be formed and based at Cloakham Lawns?

Leading UK Rural Affairs lawyer to give legal advice at this year's Honiton Show

ONE of Europe's top agricultural and rural affairs lawyers will be offering legal advice to East Devon's farming community and landowners at this year's Honiton Show which is now being held on the later date of August 30th 2012.

newables. But you don't need to have a legal query to drop in and see us at the show, please just come in to say hello and make the most of our hospitality."

History of the show

THE first Honiton Show was held in 1890, the 54th year of Queen Victoria's reign in fields on Bramble Hill, Honiton.

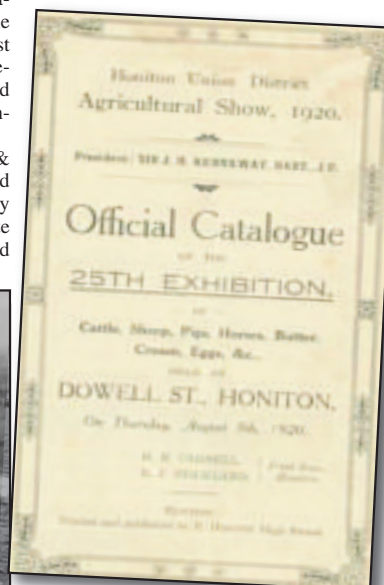

The Association was then named The Honiton Union District Store Cattle and Poultry Association. Its first president was Viscount Sidmouth. That year the show was held on 2nd October, with admission costing one shilling and a grand after show dinner at the Dolphin Hotel.

Thirty years and a world war later, in 1920 the show moved to Dowell Street and the association was re-named Honiton Union District Agricultural Association. After the second world war in 1946 the classes included Labourers Long Service Awards and judging of the Hunting Hounds. Poultry classes disappeared and dairy cattle were very low on entries; This was due to the rationing taking effect during the war. The year 1948 saw the introduction of The West Of England Hound Show. This was the beginning of what is now one of the largest and most prestigious Hound Shows in the country.

The association, now known as Honiton & District Agricultural Association, celebrated its centenary in 1990 as a limited company and held a special show to commemorate with some 290 trade stands and compared with closer to 400 in 2003. The association has come a long way since 1890 and is ready for the next one hundred years!

YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHER to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster

Proud of Team GB, despite the ironies

■ MUCH as I was elated by the Olympics and the success of Team GB, two ironies emerged after the games had finished.

They are, that the country that won the most medals in Europe is also the fattest nation in Europe, with the fattest children heading head long towards diabetes and heart disease to name but a few consequences.

The second irony is that the government starts its 'Olympic legacy' by proposing to allow schools to sell of school playing fields, instead of schools having to retain a certain amount of square metres, depending on the quantity of pupils.

Now the guidelines will be that schools must provide only 'suitable outdoor space' for pupils.

A very subjective decision for a headmaster who will probably have to get some cash from land sale rather than government funding.

Yet another government who wants to sell the 'family silver' to fill funding holes, opened by recession and unemployment, for their own benefit not ours or our children's.

Stephen Williams

Olympics: what a fantastic two weeks

■ WELL, now the Olympics is all over – bar the memories.

What a fantastic two weeks we have just had, so much to be proud of.

Even the hardest sceptics must have been moved by the British achievements.

Yes, it cost a lot but we will survive!

We needed this to take us away from the 'doom and gloom'.

Our athletes can be so proud of what they have achieved when you compare the ratio of population to China and the USA.

As for the opening and closing ceremonies, amazing.

■ LEAVING CEREMONY: Musbury Moles wish Natalie and Tatyana luck as they move up to primary school

Pre-school send off two of its members to school

MUSBURY Moles pre-school held a leaving ceremony and party for Natalie and Tatyana to celebrate their time at the pre-school.

The children enjoyed dressing up in their home made robes and receiving a certificate.

Joining in the celebrations were both the pre-school children and the infants class from Musbury primary school.

Tatyana will be going to join her older siblings at Seaton Primary School whilst Natalie will be starting Musbury Primary School in September.

Spaces are still available at the pre-school for the September intake, contact Musbury Moles via email at musbury_moles@yahoo.co.uk or call Laura on 01297 639912.

■ LASTING LEGACY: The mosaic takes pride of place at Musbury Primary School

Pupils' mosaic takes pride of place

A COMBINED Diamond Jubilee and 2012 Olympics mosaic was created by Year 6 pupils at Musbury Primary School before they left for their summer holidays.

Headteacher Clive Salmon said: "Each year we arrange a project for our leavers in order that they have the opportunity to work together on a collaborative project which takes pride of place in our school and which pupils can see when they come back to visit us."

Pupils worked on the project with Alison Bowskill from The Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis and were also helped by Mr Salmon.

School administrator Lorraine Tolman said: "They had great fun making the colourful mosaic which depicts the Thames, Olympic figures, boats, a diamond and some beautiful wording."

Gamesmakers greet kids at church's village holiday club

THE Olympic spirit was prevalent when more than 25 children gathered in Kilmington for The Global Games and were greeted by 25 Gamesmakers.

Kilmington Kids Holiday Club, which comes under the umbrella of Kilmington Baptist Church, took the role of LOCOG and ran the event.

The sessions included crafts and quizzes, food and fun, prizes and puppets, songs and sports.

Julietta Obudu, who organised the event, said: "As a child I attended church-run holiday clubs and as an adult I ran holiday clubs with churches in Tanzania.

"But this is the first attempt to run a holiday club in recent years with Kilmington Baptist Church and helpers from other local churches.

"The whole team was really pleased with the way it went, and the children kept coming back and increasing in number each day.

"It may be tiring running these things, but it has been well worth all the effort that everyone put in."

Local Theatre Company's Model Spreads to Poland

FOLLOWING two very original recent theatre productions, Tale Valley Community Theatre is launching into an inter-generational theatre project which will be at least twelve months in the making. Late 2011 saw the performance of 'Hollyhayes' which drew heavily on over 40 interviews with people involved with agriculture. Performed in a barn on a Payhembury farm, the production drew full houses and was praised for its inventiveness and authenticity. In April this year, a site-specific production which involved researching the history of a local house, Leyhill, resulted in the creation of scenes from 1349 (which dealt with the Black Death) through various eras to the present day, each performed in an appropriate room or outdoor space at the property. Selling out in just two weeks, this production attracted critical acclaim and firmly established TVCT as an innovative force in Community Theatre.

Having recently returned from Supraśl in Eastern Poland where, over five days he established an embryonic community play based on the fascinating history of that town, TVCT's Artistic Director John Somers will reflect on the group's recent work at a meeting in Payhembury Parish Hall at 8.00pm on Thursday 13th September. This will include showing extracts from the video of Leyhill made by professional film maker, Ben Vallack – before introducing the group's next project.

Research and development of this intergenerational production will involve bringing together teenagers and older people, first to research the childhood of the older people – in the period 1930s to the 1950s – before devising short scenes which depict key aspects of the research. These scenes will be played by the youngsters and will be paired with scenes from the old age of the young people – around the year 2075 – played by the older actors. The scenes will be themed, so topics such as 'agriculture', 'family life', 'health care', 'education', 'transport', 'entertainment' and 'communications' will lead to paired, eight-minute performances with around 150 years between them – say, farming in 1935 and farming in 2085.

Considerable research will be involved as well as interesting technical challenges in representing the world of the future. It is expected that 'experts' will also speak about these topics and help to develop the stories, so TVCT are keen to involve farmers, doctors, teachers, telecommunications workers etc.

In the interim, workshops on different aspects of theatre making will be held – writing, directing and acting. If you are interested in this work, you can contact John at j.w.somers@ex.ac.uk or 01884 277390. An Honorary Fellow at Exeter University, John has worked extensively internationally, including this year four periods in Turkey, two in Poland and work in Greece and the Czech Republic to come. Since being invited to make a play to celebrate the turn of the millennium, he has created many original Community Theatre projects in the area and is helping other communities to plan similar original work. He has received awards for his work in Turkey, Greece and the USA.

Win a case of cider courtesy of Lyme Bay Winery

LYME Bay Winery produce award winning, traditional ciders, country wines and fruit liqueurs. The Winery is a small artisan company, so while they utilise modern production techniques where possible, their drinks are produced in small batches with much care.

The Jack Ratt Story

JACK Ratt, born Jack Rattenbury in Devon in 1778, was a seaman and fisherman who turned to smuggling to earn his living. He lived four miles away in the village of Beer, smuggling tea, brandy, and tobacco from France to secret coves along the Lyme Bay coast. Smuggled goods were shipped in waterproof barrels tied together with ropes ready for sinking in the sea off the coast if the Customs & Excise were about. Weighted down by stones and marked with a small float, the goods were collected at a future date and smuggled into the countryside via a system of safe houses, to market.

Jack Rattenbury had many encounters with the Customs & Excise and often made lucky escapes. William Hunt, one of Jack Ratt's contemporaries and a member of the infamous 'Beere gang' was not so lucky. After evading capture he had to have his dislocated shoulder put back by the force of a cider press.

After 30 years of adventures; surviving impressments, imprisonment, shipwreck, and storm, Jack Ratt was so notorious he was asked to relate his story for a book; 'Memoirs of a Smuggler', published in 1837.

The Lyme Bay Winery is proud to name their ciders after this colourful local figure!

The Lyme Bay Story

IN 1992 Nigel Howard left his city career to pursue his dream of producing real West Country cider. Inspired by the coastline of Lyme Bay and local maritime history, he established the Lyme Bay Winery at Manor Farm, Seaton. Two years later the first 'Lyme Bay' and 'Jack Ratt' ciders were sold from the shop at Manor Farm. As Lyme Bay Cider's reputation for great tasting, quality cider grew; we diversified into producing traditional Country Wines and Liqueurs. The popularity of these drinks meant that demand quickly outstripped the ability to produce at Manor Farm, so in 2001 we moved the Company to the new Winery at Shute. Since then we have continued to expand and develop new products and are now building a new 6000 ft square to house our press for our grapes form our newly established vineyards.

To enter the competition please answer the following question: What year was the infamous Jack Rattenbury born?

Email your answer to lucy@lymebaywinery, or drop your answer into the shop, where you can also try all these delicious ciders, plus wines, liqueurs and much much more.

The case of cider will include:

- 1 x 1 litre flagon Scrumpy cider

NEW CHOIR WORKSHOPS COME TO AXMINSTER

A N D Y Hague, who is involved in a number of local choirs, including the Sweet Honi n' Soul Rock choir and Uplyme Gospel Singers and was formally the leader of Music Performance Studies at Richard Huish College, has launched a one year course with the aim of training people who want to improve their ability to sing in vocal groups of any kind. "There are a number of important skills involved in singing in a group," says Andy "Initially it can be very difficult to listen to the whole choir, whilst singing your own part; it's easy to be distracted and move to a different line or simply gravitate to the tune."

Andy intends to use a number of different musical styles, including pop, classical and folk to gradually increase the skills of the people on the course and there will also be support via a website. You'll be taught to follow music and be helped to recognise different musical intervals. The course costs only £90 for 10 3-hour sessions and starts September. It will be held monthly in Axminster. Numbers will be limited to ensure that everyone on the course gets enough personal attention. If you're interested contact Pat Hicks on 01297 32838, or email patricks@btinternet.com

Jamie Smith's Mabon at the Phoenix

THE music of Jamie Smith's Mabon is well described as original, intercultural, world music. Composed by frontman Jamie Smith and brought to life by six highly accomplished musicians, it draws inspiration directly from the traditional folk music of the Celtic countries. This is not Welsh music, nor Scottish or Irish; this is intercultural music, a true exploration of forms and styles found in Celtic music and their forging into something bold and new. In their former incarnation as 'Mabon', the band has performed at hundreds of concert and festivals in over fifteen countries worldwide.

Jamie Smith's Mabon play at Exeter Phoenix on Saturday, October 27th from 8pm. Tickets cost £10 and are available by calling 01392 667080, from the website www.exeterphoenix.org.uk or from the venue.

THE UK's leading event for home improvers, The National Home Improvement Show, is returning for its fourth consecutive year to a new home, Olympia, London from September 28th-30th 2012.

Aimed at the serious home improver, the show brings visitors an unrivalled selection of ideas, inspiration and expert advice to help them take the next step with their home improvement project. The show has grown significantly and boasts a number of brand new features, including free interior design classes at The Design School, one to one advice at the Renewable Energy Advice Clinic and real life case studies at The Inspirational Interactive Café. There are hundreds of exhibitors and experts for you to meet and thousands of innovative products for you to see – all packed into three days under the one roof!

Experience 'traditional, smaller-ship cruises', where the emphasis is on a friendly atmosphere, good food and first-class entertainment on board, while taking in interesting ports of call from which shore excursions are offered. This is what we have on offer on board Ocean Countess – and at superb value prices too!

The ship will be offering six widely varying itineraries, from five to twenty-eight nights' duration, as well as a season-ending overnight 'Taster' cruise to Liverpool. The series begins in some style, with a month-long, winter-warming voyage to the Caribbean – and the mid-Atlantic Azores. This is followed in mid-March by a cruise beyond the Arctic Circle in search of the fabled Northern Lights, an Eastertime 'Iberian Odyssey' to some delightful cities in Spain and Portugal, and an April journey to Western Norway's spectacular fjords. A 'Springtime Gardens' cruise and a week-long 'Celtic Landscapes' voyage complete the ship's programme from the West Country port.

Highway Code 149 – 151

I WONDER how many motorists have read the latest Highway code?

I'm sure most drivers have. If so, how many have studied the rules 149, which states you must exercise proper control of your vehicle at all times. But if that's the case, why is it that we see so many drivers insisting on speaking on their mobile phones, playing with their Sat-Nav, texting and sending e-mails while apparently being in 'PROPER CONTROL' of their vehicle and thinking nothing of it? We appear to be living in a society that just seems to accept this type of irresponsible reckless behaviour, and it's not only the younger new drivers, it's become all age groups in all types of vehicles. The use of a mobile phone while in charge of a motor vehicle is quite concerning for law abiding motorists because it's usually the innocent that suffer!

Let me know your views, email: david-c-light@hotmail.co.uk

Honda's summer sale is something to shout about

TO CELEBRATE the last few weeks of summer, Honda is putting on a sales event to span across the whole of its car dealer network. Not usually something Honda shouts about, this was just too good to pass up. During the event, running from the 17th of August until the 31st of August, customers can visit their local Honda dealer to bag themselves a great deal.

To run alongside the two week summer sale Honda has also launched an exciting competition, giving customers the chance to win thousands of prizes every day. Some of the prizes up for grabs include two-for-one hotel stays, return flights to European destinations, cinema tickets and one year golf card memberships.

To be entered into the daily prize draw all customers need to do is register their details on www.honda.co.uk/sale and wait for their unique code. The code will be sent via SMS or email and after 24 hours, can be used anytime throughout the summer sale by taking it to a local Honda dealer, to find out if they have won one of the many daily prizes.

Every customer that registers their details and takes their code to a dealer will automatically be entered into the grand prize draw, to win a Honda of their choice. The prize is the choice of the winner and can be a car, something from the motorcycle range, an ATV, lawnmower or generator – the list goes on.

"Honda's summer sale and competition is a way for us to shake things up and get people excited. We recognise that competitions are a great way to engage with our customers, but also something fun to get everyone involved" says Kate Barratt, National Marketing Communications Manager at Honda (UK). "The grand prize also has something for all Honda enthusiasts, with the opportunity to choose a Honda from our wide range of products."

To find out more about Honda's products and to read the full T&Cs for the competition, visit <http://www.honda.co.uk/>.

Ford's best-ever vehicle range boosts fleet sales leadership

FORD'S UK fleet business is reaping the benefits of the company's best-ever vehicle range, as car sales accelerate. Ford is leading the UK fleet car market with a 15.9 per cent share for the year to date (end July); up from 15.4 per cent for the same period in 2011.

Ford's total fleet vehicle sales – comprising 95,752 cars and 32,654 vans – make up 62 per cent of Ford's total vehicle sales. The Ford Dagenham-built 1.6-litre TDCi engine is the UK's most popular engine choice for fleet managers and accounts for 25 per cent of Ford fleet car sales for the year to date.

The Ford C-MAX has seen the largest growth in Ford's fleet car sales with a 22 per cent increase for the year to date, compared with 2011. The Ford Galaxy is close behind with a 20 per cent rise. Further fleet sales increases have been recorded by the Ford Fiesta, Focus and Mondeo with sales up seven per cent, three per cent and three per cent, respectively, for the year to date, compared with 2011. The new Ford B-MAX is now on sale and is expected to record over 6,000 fleet sales in its first full year.

Kevin Griffin, Ford of Britain fleet director, said: "Ford sells its vehicles across all sectors of the UK fleet markets and I am delighted that the company has seen an increase in total fleet sales, in 2012. The combination of Ford's best-ever vehicle range, latest fuel-efficient diesel and EcoBoost petrol engines, improving residual values and the power of the UK's largest dealer network has seen Ford's fleet business go from strength-to-strength.

"We are seeing growing interest around the 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol engine, with 40 per cent of Ford Focus 1.0-litre EcoBoost sales going to fleet buyers, despite the fleet market being diesel-led," he continued.

Ford continues to lead the UK commercial vehicle fleet market with a 26.7 per cent share, 13 percentage points ahead of its closest competitor. The Ford Transit tops UK commercial vehicle fleet sales with 27,006 registrations for the year to date and it remains Ford's third best-selling vehicle in Britain.

Honda's summer sale is something to shout about

TO CELEBRATE the last few weeks of summer, Honda is putting on a sales event to span across the whole of its car dealer network. Not usually something Honda shouts about, this was just too good to pass up. During the event, running from the 17th of August until the 31st of August, customers can visit their local Honda dealer to bag themselves a great deal.

To run alongside the two week summer sale Honda has also launched an exciting competition, giving customers the chance to win thousands of prizes every day. Some of the prizes up for grabs include two-for-one hotel stays, return flights to European destinations, cinema tickets and one year golf card memberships.

To be entered into the daily prize draw all customers need to do is register their details on www.honda.co.uk/sale and wait for their unique code. The code will be sent via SMS or email and after 24 hours, can be used anytime throughout the summer sale by taking it to a local Honda dealer, to find out if they have won one of the many daily prizes.

Every customer that registers their details and takes their code to a dealer will automatically be entered into the grand prize draw, to win a Honda of their choice! The prize is the choice of the winner and can be a car, something from the motorcycle range, an ATV, lawnmower or generator – the list goes on.

"Honda's summer sale and competition is a way for us to shake things up and get people excited. We recognise that competitions are a great way to engage with our customers, but also something fun to get everyone involved" says Kate Barratt, National Marketing Communications Manager at Honda (UK). "The grand prize also has something for all Honda enthusiasts, with the opportunity to choose a Honda from our wide range of products."

To find out more about Honda's products and to read the full T&Cs for the competition, visit <http://www.honda.co.uk/>.

FRANCIS CLARK DEVON LEAGUE Seaton 1st XI 138-9 drew with Honiton 1st XI 185-9

SEATON 1st XI's promotion push was again dented on Saturday as they could only manage a losing draw against Honiton and rivals Plymouth CS won against Whimble.

Seaton captain Ben Morgan won the toss and asked the visitors to bat. Honiton raced to 110-2 despite good bowling and fielding from the hosts.

Seaton, missing four first XI regulars, managed to restrict Honiton to 185-9 with Copp taking 4-36, Berry 3-59 and Morgan 2-49.

The Seaton reply started disastrously as they stumbled to 18-6 after 12 overs. Fourteen-year-old Reid Mawdesley and Copp battled through some decent bowling in very foggy conditions with a steady and solid partnership of 94.

With 10 overs to go Seaton were 111-6 and they decided to look to go for the win.

But Copp was soon clean bowled for 37 and Reid fell shortly after for his maiden 1st XI half-century of 53.

So it was up to Morgan and Berry to face the last three overs to gain the losing draw.

Morgan ended up unbeaten on 16 in a total of 138-9 – a result which sees Seaton remain in 3rd spot, nine points behind Plymouth Civil Service.

Morgan said: "We thought 185 was gettable, but after our poor start I would have taken the losing draw at 18-6.

"Reid and Ben Copp batted superbly and used their brains in a tricky situation. Both Plymouth CS and us have got to travel to fifth placed Filleigh who definitely have a say who goes up to the C Division.

"It's in Plymouth's hands but if we can regain the form from the middle part of the season it could be close."

All Saints 85 all out lost to Chilton Polden 124 all out by 39 runs.

ANOTHER poor batting display let All Saints down at Chilton Polden on Saturday.

Having won the toss and elected to bowl, Saints got off to a great start, reducing the home side to 29-4, but middle order resistance allowed Polden to battle to 124 all out, with Fraser Wallace (3-22) and Mike Nunn (3-33) emerging with the best figures.

In reply Saints got off to a disastrous start, falling to 0-1 in the first over. The top order, which had batted so well last week, capitulated.

Only Mike Nunn (45) provided any resistance, and when he departed, the visitors crumbled to 85 all out with a scorecard that included five ducks.

ON THE SPOT...

VIEW FROM Sport puts Feniton CC's

ANDREW ROSE

UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT

Q How long have you been involved in the local cricket scene? Who have you played for?

A I have played junior/league cricket for Feniton over the last 17 years.

Q Name the three best players you played alongside so far and why

A I'm going to split this into batting, bowling and fielding. Batting - Mark Kingdon - even as he approaches his twilight years, he is still fantastic to watch and continues to lead the batting averages. Bowling - Russell Whitton - from the first ball at pre-season practice to the very last delivery of the season, he is on the money. Fielding - Alex Frankpitt - someone once said to me that "he could field for England", anyone that's played with or against him would be hard pushed to disagree with that.

Q What's the best away ground you've played on?

A Chagford - a fantastic setting, the outfield is huge and the facilities are great. A fantastic advert for village cricket.

Q Do any games stick in your memory?

A At home against Kilminster years ago, they made a huge score (around 260 I think) and Michael Peek at number 10 or 11 smashed a six to win off the final ball. Another is last Sunday's Corinthian cup final victory.

Q How would you improve things at Feniton CC?

A As much as I love our current pitch, I must admit that a new one would make sense. It will give the residents a rest and some peace and quiet.

Q What is your top score?

A Last year at North Devon for the 2nd team I hit 91 not out in about 10 overs. A very frustrated North Devon captain shook my hand after the game and told me he had never seen anything like it.

Q Name some young players we should look out for in the future.

A The 2nd XI have a great crop of youngsters coming through due to the hard work by so many over the last seven or eight years with the youth set-up here. Josh Cann, Conner Toogood and Matt Cann have made good improvements this season after gaining regular spots in the team.

French victory for Watson

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

SEVENTEEN-year-old Andrew Watson was enjoying his holiday in France and came across a 10.5K run called La Ronde des Phares at Le Verdon-sur-Mer which is just north of Bordeaux.

On a blisteringly hot day Andrew joined in with 300 others and despite the heat ran incredibly well and finished 21st.

In England you are a senior until aged 40, but in France they have a category for 17 to 21 year olds called "cadet".

Andrew was delighted to have won that category and was presented with a cup and bottles of wine for his achievement.

Alex Todd had a storming run at the Maiden Newton Madness multi-terrain 10K finishing 2nd overall in 40.55.

Dalwood 10k (ish) is quite a challenging hilly run. Nine AVR runners decided to chance their luck on Wednesday and attack all the hills, mud and gloom.

First man in was our own AVR member Tim Lenton, closely followed by Alex Todd. James Jackson was not far behind then Martin Croad who had an amazingly strong run and was pleased to have beaten Eleanor Wood who puffed in behind him.

Eleanor however was dead chuffed to be the first Lady in the race.

Robin Carter did sneak up on Eleanor in the woods and overtook her, but competitive Wood blasted by her on the road, but Robin was still the 2nd lady finisher.

Ian Clements was next in having a great time then it was Robin Britton over the line and moments later Andy Sayers arrived with a big smile on his face.

There was a wonderful curry and plenty of beer to be enjoyed post race.

Many thanks to Dalwood for putting on this wonderful country event.

For a nice scenic charge around the tors of Dartmoor there can be nothing better than the Stick-lepath Fell race.

This was 15.5K long and included Belstone tor, Oak tor, Steeperton tor and Cosdon beacon.

Tim Lenton had a great race and won it in 1:17:27. Robin Carter was the first lady finisher, 21st overall in 1:38:19. James Jackson ran very well to finish 6th, 1:23:47 and Robin Britton was 20th, 1:38:14.

bowls extra Lyme Regis

FIRSTLY a report on the Lyme trio of Paul Pomeroy, Paul Moffitt and Peter Eagles' exploits at Worthing where they were representing Dorset in the National Finals writes Paul Moffitt.

The first round saw them pitted against Gloucestershire where, in a closely fought game, the Lyme 'lads' came out on top.

The second round draw put Dorset against Kent, not too bad you think until you realise their skip is none other than the present World champion Andy Thomson!

The rest of the Kent team are also British Internationals, so no pressure. The Lyme trio managed to pick up the odd shots and also managed in the main to limit Kent to singles.

After what can only be described as a bowls master class from Thomson, the Lyme trio finally bowed out of the National Championships having done themselves proud.

At home, good wins for the ladies and the men's 'B' team in the league but further disappointment for the championship side and the men's 'A' team.

Talk of the Championship being split into East and West may be the Lyme teams only salvation as they languish at the bottom of the league.

On the friendly front there was a good win for Lyme against Somerton.

Saturday saw the annual open triples for ladies being held at Lyme with no fewer than 24 teams taking part.

The final was contested between Wellworthy and Broadstone with Wellworthy running out winners by just a couple of shots.

This was a large catering exercise for the Lyme ladies who, under the supervision of catering officer Sue Wood, turned out a truly wonderful spread which was greatly appreciated by some 90 odd competitors and guests.

Bowls round-up

Seaton lift Perham cup

SEATON with Linda Stone

LAST Tuesday the ladies of Seaton Bowling Club competed in the Perham Trophy.

Teams from Budleigh Salterton, Sidmouth, Maderia, Lyme Regis and Chard played against five Seaton Rinks.

Seaton won the first prize, and the trophy, while Sidmouth were close runners-up. The winning rink for Seaton was L. Hurley-Smith, M. Wolf, M. Vessey & S. Rutter.

On Thursday we welcomed a tour from Portishead. Six mixed rinks played and the final score was 105-98 to Seaton.

Seaton's top rink was S. Pike, E. Jenkin, H. Smith & D. Yaxley.

Unfortunately the match due to be played on Friday against Heavitree had to be cancelled as was the ladies over 50's league match against Exonia.

Saturday was the Ladies Captain's day. A match was played between two teams - one representing the Captain L.Stone, the other headed by the acting Vice-Captain A. Mayhew.

It was a really enjoyable match with the Lady's Captains team eventually winning 34 - 31.

This was followed by a meal to which many past members were invited.

FENITON with Roger Smith

THE men's over 60s A team maintained their recent run of good form with a 35-27 win away at St. Thomas B, securing seven valuable points.

The winning rink was J Livings, R North and A Evans 19-11.

The ladies team continued their good run of form in the East Devon league defeating Topsham by 46-30.

The winning rinks were: M. Imms, A Pritchard, Ru Clarke & R Veitch 23-12 and N Cox, J Evans, E Tuck & G North 23-18.

The mixed team entertained Tiverton West End in an evening match and won by 90-69.

The winning rinks; were F Brooks, E Rolph, A Evans & M Eveleigh 26-14, D Sanders, G Perryman, D Phillips & D Evans 21-9, J Livings, E Cox, J Smith & K Lovering 17-8 and S Goodenough, A Pritchard, G Phillips & R Cooke 21-20.

This rich vein of form continued with an excellent 133-78 win away at Bridport winning on all six rinks.

The winning rinks were; J Evans, E Cox, A Coyne & K Lovering 30-10, N Cox, E Goodenough, J Livings & D Coyne 23-10, S Goodenough, G Skinner, J Smith & D Evans 22-12, G Smith, J Wheatley, G Phillips & R Smith 17-11, J Skinner, G Perryman, R Cooke & J O'Sullivan 21-16 and D Phillips, D Roberts, A Evans & A Smith 20-19.

Finally, the mixed team defeated Belmont 75-66. The winning rinks were D Sanders, G Skinner & E Rolph 27-14, N Cox, J Rolph & L Ley 21-15 and L Crook, A Pritchard & D Conbeer 16-12.

Showjumping sisters hit the road

SHOWJUMPING sisters took to the road to help send the Exeter College Young Games Makers to the London Paralympics.

Becky Stone an Exeter College YGM rode with her sisters Sammie, Tabby and Jamie from Honiton to Axminster on Saturday to raise money to help her team from Exeter College get to the London Paralympics next week.

The ride took nearly six hours stopping at local public houses on the way. Jamie being the youngest showjumper at only six years old had a harder ride to keep up with her elder sisters to complete the journey with only her little 12.2hh pony against her sisters horse at 17.2hh.

Becky and the rest of the Westbridge Showjumping team would like to thank Dodpen Stables and all of their sponsors for their help and support for this event.

Revenge win for Axe Cliffe

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIORS

THE Seniors played two inter-club matches last week.

The first was against Windwhistle on Monday which resulted in a second 3-3 draw with Windwhistle this year.

The visitors were leading 3-1 but the last two matches went the way of the home club, resulting in the honours being shared.

Winning pairings for Axe Cliff were; Keith Wilson & Paul Burgess, Bryan Dale & John White and Geoff Hubbard & Frank Essex

On Friday, Bridport were the visitors and the home team managed to avenge the defeat suffered in May at Bridport with a 4-2 victory.

The visitors were quick to point out that overall they edged ahead as they had won the early tie by 5½-½.

Winning combinations for Axe Cliff were; Chris Walker & Iain Bain, Gilbert Cox & Malcolm Glass, Rob Heard & Jack Bannister and Bryan Dale & Brian Blackwood.

In a recent new Texas Scramble for Seniors at Sherborne Golf Club teams of three were invited. Malcolm Glass, Iain Bain together with Helen Gaudie competed and won the visitors prize for a mixed team.

MAIN CLUB

LAST Sunday Paul Cordwell (12) won the Centenary Cup with a nett 68.

Runner-up, beating Rob Gray with a better back nine went to Cyril Hellier (12) with a nett 69 with Dave Morgan the player to miss out on the back six.

LADIES

ON Saturday the main club and the ladies played for the 'honour' of the Wooden Spoon!

The result was halved and the Spoon remains adorned with a blue ribbon.

Winning pairings for the Ladies were Lady Captain Barbara Cummings & Glenda Board and Helen Kenworthy & Lesley Crawford.

Winners for the men were Brian Kemp & Theo Boalch and Alan Kenworthy & Steve Bond.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

ANOTHER clever idea from the captain had us paired up for an interesting Stableford game.

Player A was designated the odd holes and B the evens with your resulting score doubled according to the hole each player played.

With a possible two points per par, doubled if it was 'your hole,' each team had a potential 6pts on offer per hole. A full eighteen holes meant a par round would result in 108pts all together... Clear (as mud)?

It was a fun game, but if you failed to score on 'your holes' the points slipped away very quickly. My own pair failed to score a single point on the 14th and as I was player B my 'blob' was twice as bad as my partner's.

The winners on the day with the only over par round were Ian Atyeo and Darren England with 114pts.

In second place were Steve Bromby and Norman Runciman, 107pts, with James Drew and Dan Noar, 106pts, third.

TUESDAY MIXED

A LARGE field played in beautiful weather this week with the course looking extremely good.

Teams of four - Best Lady score and Best Gentleman score on each hole - Stableford off Full Handicap.

The winning team with 82pts were Jane & Mike Watts with Maureen & Laurie Tollemache.

Second with 79pts on c/b were Rosemary & Vaughan Whiteley with Sue & Paul Witton. In third place, also on 79, were Avril Shepherd, Chris Poole, Dot Grove & Stan Squire.

Point sees Tigers up and running Seaton Town held by Heavies

Axminster Town 0 Exmouth Town 0
South West Peninsula League Division One (E)
Saturday, August 18th

AXMINSTER Town began life under new manager Paul Ashford with a 0-0 draw against Exmouth Town.

Ashford's assistant James Bennett was impressed with the point, he said: "Exmouth are rumoured to be one of the title favourites this campaign and brought an experienced side. The game was played in a good spirit with both sides having their fair share of possession and chances. "The whole team worked very hard and gave a disciplined and organised performance- it's a good footing to begin the season."

Axminster's back four of Elliot Dyer, Chris Long, Ollie Highet and Correy Couch and 'keeper Danny Lewis stayed strong and resolute against their forwards and in attack there was always a chance of goals with Pete Knox leading the forward line well.

howard@pemediaco.uk

Combative central midfielder Aaron Doble took the Man-of-the-Match accolade after a hard-running performance.

The clean sheet was the Tigers' first shut-out in 36 matches, a run stretching back to the 1-0 win over Ottery St Mary almost 16 months ago.

Ax, with no injuries from Saturday, will use a similar squad when they look to build on this impressive result when they entertain the Exeter University students at Sector Lane on Saturday (3pm ko).

This is followed by Bank Holiday Monday's trip to Foxhayes to take on Exeter Civil Service.

Not such a good start from Sidmouth Town who went down 4-1 at Okehampton Argyle.

Meanwhile Axminster Town Reserves, with club stalwart Alan Beer at the helm, commence their Devon & Exeter League Division Five campaign with a trip to the seaside to take on Exmouth Town Reserves.

Up in the Premier Division Seaton Town, last season's runners-up, were held to a 3-3 draw by Heavitree Social United.

The Heavies, tipped by many as possible champions, dominated the early stages, then had to equalise twice after being caught on the break. Both teams then scored a second-half penalty for a share of the spoils.

Scorers for Seaton were Mark Perham, Ben Ede and Josh French (penalty) while Nathan Melton netted a hat-trick for the visitors.

A tough start for Beer Albion who were thrashed 7-0 at Willand Rovers who also had a man sent off.

Ton Beddow led the scoring with a hat-trick. Beer manager Phil Crabbe was a bit shell-shocked but feels it could have been a one-off result.
